Andrea Schwartz Gallery was founded in 1982 and focuses on contemporary paintings, photography, works on paper and sculpture of mid-career artists. For over thirty-eight years, Andrea Schwartz Gallery has supported work that is challenging and at the forefront of contemporary practice, representing a select group of artists from the Bay Area and throughout the country.

In 2011, Andrea Schwartz Gallery began the exciting partnership with Bardessono Hotel & Spa, creating a rotating art program, featuring art in the public areas, villas, and sculpture throughout the property. The art program focuses on artwork that has the same unique aesthetic quality that you would expect from a luxury hotel like Bardessono. Many of the featured artists are local to the Bay Area and typically create one of a kind, contemporary works of art.

Andrea Schwartz Gallery moved to its current location in the South of Market district in 2012, blocks away from the new San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, Oracle Park, Chase Center and the Moscone Center.
